CORPORATION TAX ACT

29 of 1966. An Act to provide for the taxation of short-term capital gains and to make better provisions for the taxation of company profits and for matters incidental thereto or consequential thereon.

Commencement. [1ST JANUARY 1966]

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Corporation Tax Act.

PART I

TAXATION OF COMPANIES

PRELIMINARY

Interpretation.
[11 of 1988
6 of 1989
9 of 1997].

2. (1) In this Part—

“branch or agency” means any factorship, agency, receivership, branch or management;

“chargeable profits” means the aggregate amount of the profits of any company specified in section 3 remaining after allowing the appropriate deductions and exemptions under this Part;

“company” means any body corporate or unincorporated association, but does not include a partnership;

“corporation tax” or “tax” means the tax charged by section 3;

“distribution” has the meaning assigned to it by section 49 of the Income Tax Act;

Ch. 75:01. “investment company” has the meaning assigned to that expression in section 6(3);

“marketing licensee” means a person carrying on marketing business to whom a marketing licence, within the meaning of regulation 3(1)(h) of the Petroleum Regulations is issued or to be issued under or in accordance with the Petroleum Act;

Ch. 62:01. “new consideration” has in other provisions the same meaning as in section 49(11) of the Income Tax Act;

Ch. 75:01.

“non-resident company” means a company not controlled in Trinidad and Tobago, whether or not the company is—

- (a) incorporated in Trinidad and Tobago; or
- (b) engaged in trade or business or in the pursuit of professional or vocational activities in Trinidad and Tobago;

“petroleum marketing business” means the business of dealing in petroleum and petroleum products by way of an acquisition and a disposal to a marketing licensee or to a consumer in Trinidad and Tobago or to a person in any other prescribed country, and includes bunkering of ships and aircraft by a marketing licensee, but does not include—

- (a) disposal of petroleum by a person carrying on a production business where the petroleum disposed of is produced by such person; or
- (b) disposal by a person carrying on refining business of—
 - (i) petroleum products refined by such person;
 - (ii) petroleum products acquired and blended with petroleum products refined by such person, where any such disposal is made to a marketing licensee, or to the refining business of another; or

- (c) bunkering of ships ex-refinery wharf in international trade by a person carrying on refining business;

“petroleum operations” has the meaning assigned to it by section 2(1) of the Petroleum Taxes Act;

Ch. 75:04.

“preference dividend” means a dividend payable on a preferred share or preferred stock at a fixed gross rate per cent issued by a resident company before 31st January 1966, or, where a dividend is payable on such a preferred share or preferred stock partly at a fixed gross rate per cent and partly at a variable rate, such part of that dividend as is payable at a fixed gross rate per cent;

“profits” means income and includes short-term capital gains;

“resident company” means a company that is controlled in Trinidad and Tobago, whether or not the company is—

- (a) incorporated in Trinidad and Tobago; or

(b) engaged in trade or business or in the pursuit of professional or vocational activities in Trinidad and Tobago;

“royalties” means—

(a) amounts paid as consideration for the use of, or the right to use—

(i) copyrights, artistic or scientific works, patents, designs, plans, secret processes or formulae, trade marks, motion picture films, films or tapes for radio or television broadcasting, or other like properties or rights; or

(ii) information concerning industrial, commercial or scientific knowledge, experience or skill;

(b) royalties, rentals, or other amounts paid in respect of the operation of mines, quarries or other natural resources;

“short-term capital gains” means chargeable gains accruing on a disposal of an asset within twelve months of its acquisition;

“subsidiary company” has the meaning provided for the purposes of section 49(1)(d)(iv) of the Income Tax Act by section 49(4) of that Act;

Ch. 75:01.

“withholding tax” has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Income Tax Act;

“a source of income” is “within the charge to” corporation tax or income tax if that tax is chargeable on the income arising from it or would be so chargeable if there were any such income, and references to a person, or to income being within the charge to tax, shall be similarly construed.

(2) In this Act and the Income Tax Act and in any Act passed after this Act “Corporation Tax Acts”, except so far as the context otherwise requires, means Part I of this Act (including provisions relating to income tax), together with the provisions of the Income Tax Act as far as it applies for the purposes of corporation tax and any written law relating to corporation tax.

(3) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the Income Tax Act or any other written law, the provisions of the Income Tax Act shall not apply for the purposes of the Corporation

Tax Acts, and the provisions of those Acts shall not, subject to this section, affect the operation of the Income Tax Act as it relates to individuals but the provisions of the Income Tax (In Aid of Industry) Act, the Fiscal Incentives Act and any other written law conferring deductions, allowances and exemptions for the purposes of income tax, shall continue to have effect for such purposes as well as for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts.

Ch. 85:04.

Ch. 85:01.

(4) Without prejudice to any other case in which a company is engaged in or carrying on trade or business in Trinidad and Tobago, a company shall be deemed to be engaged in or carrying on trade or business in Trinidad and Tobago if it has an office or place of business in Trinidad and Tobago or has a branch or agency therein.

(5) Except as otherwise provided by this Part and except in so far as the context otherwise requires, expressions used in the Income Tax Act have the same meaning in this Part as in the Income Tax Act but no provision of this Part as to the interpretation of any expression, other than a provision expressed to extend to the use of that expression in the Income Tax Act shall be taken to affect its meaning in the Income Tax Act as it applies for the purposes of corporation tax.

(6) For all purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts, dividends, including preference dividends, shall be treated as paid on the date when they become due and payable.

(7) Except as otherwise provided by this Part any appointment to different periods which falls to be made thereunder shall be made on a time basis according to the respective lengths of those periods.

(8) For the purposes of the definition of “resident company” and “non-resident company”, the place where such a company is to be regarded as controlled is the place where the mind or management of the company is ordinarily situated.

IMPOSITION OF CORPORATION TAX

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, corporation tax shall be payable at the rate specified in the First Schedule for each year of income upon the profits of any company, accruing in or derived from Trinidad and Tobago or elsewhere and whether received in Trinidad and Tobago or not in respect of—

Charge of corporation tax. [32 of 1969 9 of 1997 2 of 2012 4 of 2014]. First Schedule.

- (d) any profession or vocation or management charges or charges for the provision of personal services and technical and managerial skills;
- (e) short-term capital gains;
- (f) interest, discounts, annuities or other annual or periodic payments;
- (g) rents paid for immovable property and royalties from the operation of mines, quarries or other natural resources and the annual value of land and improvements thereon used by or on behalf of the owner or used rent-free by the occupier for the purpose of residence or enjoyment and not for the purpose of gain or profit, the annual value being that assessed in house rates or taxes under the Lands and Buildings Taxes Act or under the Municipal Corporations Act with respect to the City of Port-of-Spain, the City of San Fernando and the Borough of Arima;
- (h) rentals and royalties paid for the use or the right to use—
 - (i) copyright, artistic or scientific work, patents, designs, plans, secret processes or formulae, trade marks, motion picture films, films or tape for radio and television broadcasting, or other like properties or rights; or
 - (ii) information concerning industrial, commercial or scientific knowledge, experience or skill;
- (i) premiums, commissions, fees and licence charges;
- (j) dividends and other income received from non-resident companies, out of profits not derived from or accruing in Trinidad and Tobago, and from persons (including a partnership) not being companies;
- (k) preference dividends;

Ch. 76:04.

Ch. 25:04.

- (l) profits or amounts deemed to be profits of a company under this Part;
- (m) any annual profits not falling under any of the foregoing paragraphs.

(2) In the case of a SME listed company, the rate of tax shall be ten per cent for the first five years from listing on the Trinidad and Tobago Stock Exchange and thereafter at the rate of tax specified in paragraph 1 of the First Schedule where—

SME listed company.

First Schedule.

- (a) a minimum of twenty-five unconnected shareholders own a total of at least thirty per cent of the new issued share capital of the company; and
- (b) capital is raised with the issuance of an initial public offering to be followed by a listing on the Trinidad and Tobago Stock Exchange no more than sixty days after allotment of the issue.

(3) In subsection (2), “SME listed company” means a Small and Medium Enterprise company listed on the Trinidad and Tobago Stock Exchange, namely a company whose—

- (a) minimum issued share capital is five million dollars and maximum issued share capital does not exceed fifty million dollars following the initial public offering;
- (b) minimum and maximum capital base comprises of issued share capital only and does not include retained earnings and accounts transferred from such issued share capital or retained earnings to a reserved account; and
- (c) minimum number of unconnected shareholders is twenty-five.

3A. (1) There shall be levied and paid to the Board a tax to be known as business levy on the gross sales or receipts of a company for each year of income at the rate of 0.2 per cent.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—

- (a) companies during the first twelve months following their registration;

- Ch. 75:04.
- (b) companies or statutory corporations exempt from corporation tax under any Act;
 - (c) the gross sales or receipts of a company which give rise to profits exempt from corporation tax under any Act;
 - (d) the Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Agricultural Development Bank, the Public Transport Service Corporation and public utilities under the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission or exempted by Order of the President;
 - (e) companies that are subject to tax under the Petroleum Taxes Act;
 - (f) the gross sales or receipts of a company whose gross sales or receipts in the preceding year of income do not exceed the sum of three hundred and sixty thousand dollars, unless there are reasonable grounds to believe that the gross sales or receipts of the company in the particular year will exceed that sum;
 - (g) (Repealed by Act No. 2 of 2006).

(2A) The President may, by Order subject to negative resolution of Parliament, amend subsection (2)(d) by exempting other public utilities from the business levy.

(3) A company is entitled to a tax credit against its business levy liability for a year of income of any payment made in respect of its corporation tax liability for that year of income up to a maximum of its business levy liability.

(4) (Repealed by Act No. 5 of 1995).

Ch. 75:01.

(5) The business levy shall be payable on the gross sales or receipts of each quarter ending on 31st March, 30th June, 30th September and 31st December, in each year of income and the provisions of section 79 of the Income Tax Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to this subsection.

(6) Where the Board is satisfied that a company is unable to determine, by the due date for payment in any quarter, the gross sales or receipts for any day in that quarter, the company may, with the approval of the Board, estimate its gross sales or receipts for that day.

(7) Where a company which estimates its gross sales or receipts for any day in a quarter, determines that its actual sales or receipts for that day are more than the estimated sales or receipts, that company shall pay the business levy due on the difference between the actual sales or receipts and the estimated sales or receipts, no later than the last day of the quarter following the quarter in which the sales or receipts were estimated.

(8) Where a company to which subsection (6) applies, pays business levy in any quarter amounting to less than ninety per cent of the business levy liability for that quarter, the difference between ninety per cent of the business levy liability and the amount paid by the end of the quarter in which the levy liability arose, shall be subject to interest from the day following the end of that quarter to the date of payment at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum.

(9) For the removal of doubt, it is hereby declared that in ascertaining the chargeable profits of a company, no deduction or allowance shall be made of, or on account of, the levy imposed by this section.

(10) The business levy shall be under the care and management of the Board of Inland Revenue and the provisions of the Income Tax Act in the Table below shall apply in relation to the business levy as they apply in relation to income tax chargeable under the Income Tax Act but subject to any necessary modification and adaptations.

(11) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1), from 1st January 1999 the business levy shall not be levied earlier than the date of expiry of three years from the date of registration of a Corporation which is registered after the aforesaid date.

General scheme of corporation
tax.
[46 of 1969].

4. (1) Subject to any exceptions provided for by this Part, a resident company shall be chargeable to corporation tax on all its profits wherever arising.

(2) Where a non-resident company is carrying on a trade or business in Trinidad and Tobago, the profits thereof that are chargeable to corporation tax shall be any income directly or indirectly accruing in or derived from Trinidad and Tobago.

Ch. 1:52. (3) Notwithstanding anything in this Act or any other rule of law to the contrary, where profits arise to a company from any activities on the continental shelf (this expression here having the same meaning as in the Continental Shelf Act) such profits shall for all the purposes of this Act be deemed to have accrued in or to have been derived from Trinidad and Tobago.

(4) A company shall be chargeable to corporation tax on profits accruing for its benefit under any trust or arising under any partnership in any case in which it would be so chargeable if the profits accrue to it directly; and a company shall be chargeable to corporation tax on profits arising in the winding up of the company, but shall not otherwise be chargeable to corporation tax on profits accruing to it in a fiduciary or representative capacity except as respects its own beneficial interest, if any, in those profits.

BASIS OF ASSESSMENT AND EXEMPTIONS

5. (1) Corporation tax shall be charged for each year of income upon the chargeable profits of the company arising in that year; so, however, that the provisions of this Part shall be read and construed as imposing the charge to corporation tax on the profits of the company for the year of income 1966 and subsequent years in respect of the profits of the accounting period ending within that year and so for subsequent years of income.

Basis of assessment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by this Part, corporation tax shall be assessed upon the full amount of the profits accruing or arising, whether or not received in Trinidad and Tobago, in the year of income without any other deduction than is authorised by this Act.

6. (1) There shall be exempt from corporation tax —
- (a) distributions, other than preference dividends, received by a company from a resident company;
 - (aa) distributions received by a resident company from the Export Import Bank over a period of ten years commencing from the date of the initial injection of private sector funds into the Export Import Bank;
 - (b) profits of an investment company;
 - (bb) gains and profits of an approved tourism project in accordance with the Order made under section 16(1) of the Tourism Development Act;

COMPUTATION OF PROFITS

7. (1) Except as otherwise provided by this Part, the chargeable profits of a company shall be computed in accordance with the income tax principles relating to the provisions of the Income Tax Act applied by section 19 and all questions as to the amounts which are or are not to be taken into account as profits, or in computing profits, or charged to tax as a person's profits or as to the time when any such amount is to be treated as arising, being determined in accordance with income tax law as applied by section 19 and practice.

General rules for computation of income. [11 of 1988 6 of 1989 5 of 1995 9 of 1997 35 of 1998 21/2005]. Ch. 75:01.

(2) For the purpose of this section "income tax law" means, in relation to any year of income, the law applying, for the year of income, to the charge on individuals of income tax.

(3) Subject to any written law applied by this Part which expressly authorises such an allowance, no allowance shall, subject to subsection (4) and section 100, be made in ascertaining the chargeable profits—

- (a) in respect of distributions; or
- (b) in respect of any annuity or other annual payment.

(4) Subsection (3)(a) shall not apply when the company makes a distribution that is a preference dividend, paid on or after 1st January 1966, but so however that—

- (a) the deduction that is allowed in ascertaining the chargeable profits shall not exceed the amount of the preference dividend;
- (b) the deduction shall be allowed only in the year of income in which the preference dividend has actually been paid.

(5) (Deleted by Act No. 21 of 2005).

(6) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), any provision of the Income Tax Act which confers an exemption from income tax, or which provides for a person to be charged to income tax on any amount (whether expressed to be income or not, and whether an actual amount or not), shall have the like effect for purposes of corporation tax so far as is consistent with this Part.

(7) Where a change in the shareholding of a company has taken place in a year of income, no loss incurred in any year preceding the year of income shall be carried forward and set off, as provided by section 16 of the Income Tax Act, against the profits of the year of income unless—

- (a) on the last day of the year of income the shares of the company carrying not less than 51 per cent of the voting power were beneficially held by persons who beneficially held shares of the company carrying not less than 51 per cent of the voting power on the last day of the year or years in which the loss was incurred; or
- (b) the Board is satisfied that the change in the shareholding was not effected with a view to avoiding or reducing any liability to tax.

(8) Subject to section (9), where in a year of income a company claims a deduction for wear and tear under section 11(1)(b) of the Income Tax Act, the deduction shall not be allowed unless the company satisfies the Board that the taxes payable in that year of income under the Lands and Buildings Taxes Act and the Municipal Corporations Act have been paid for the year of income to which the claim relates.

Deductions and additions in computations of profits for capital allowances and related charges.
 Ch. 85:04.

10. (1) In computing for purposes of corporation tax “a company’s profits” for any year of income, there shall be made in accordance with this section all such reductions and additions as are required to give effect to the provisions of the Income Tax (In Aid of Industry) Act which relate to deductions and allowances and charges in respect of capital expenditure, as those provisions are applied by this Part.

(2) Allowances and charges which fall to be made for any year of income in computing the profits of a trade shall be given effect by treating the amount of any allowance as a trading expense of the trade in that year, and by treating the amount on which any such charge is to be made as a trading receipt of the trade in that year.

10A. (Repealed by Act No. 6 of 1989).

10B. (1) In computing for the purposes of corporation tax the profits of a company for a year of income, there shall be allowed promotional expenses wholly and exclusively incurred in order to create or promote the expansion of foreign markets for the export of—

Promotional expenses.
[11 of 1984

3 of 1994].

- (a) architectural engineering, design, quantity surveying or contracting services in connection with the building industry, where such services are performed by a person resident in Trinidad and Tobago for a recipient who is outside Trinidad and Tobago; or
- (b) the export of goods and agricultural produce manufactured or produced in Trinidad and Tobago and shipped in commercial quantities, equivalent to one hundred and fifty per cent of the amount actually expended.

(2) A company granted an allowance under this section is not entitled to an allowance under section 10 of the Income Tax Act in respect of expenses referred to in subsection (1).

Ch. 75:01.

(3) A company may only qualify for an allowance under this section in respect of promotional expenses incurred in order to create or promote the expansion of foreign markets for the export of services referred to in subsection (1)(a) or goods and agricultural produce manufactured or produced in Trinidad and Tobago, where goods have been exported as a result of such expenditure.

(4) A company may not be allowed an allowance under this section in respect of emolument income within the meaning of section 100 of the Income Tax Act, except in respect of expenses incurred under paragraph (g) of subsection (5).

(5) For the purposes of this section:

“company” means a company incorporated and resident in Trinidad and Tobago;

“promotional expenses” means expenses incurred in respect of services referred to in subsection (1)(a) or goods and agricultural produce manufactured or produced in Trinidad and Tobago in—

- (a) advertising in foreign markets;
- (b) providing promotional literature for overseas distribution;
- (c) the participation in trade fairs, trade missions and similar promotional activities;
- (d) overseas travel for the purposes of conducting promotional activities;
- (e) providing free samples and technical information on products;
- (f) inviting buyers to Trinidad and Tobago;
- (g) the recruitment of specialist sales personnel, operating in foreign markets, for a maximum of two years;
- (h) conducting foreign market surveys.

(6) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to expenses incurred in petroleum operations, nor in respect of expenses incurred in the export or the expanding of the export of services referred to in subsection (1)(a) or goods and agricultural produce manufactured in Trinidad and Tobago to countries specified in the Sixth Schedule.

Sixth Schedule.

(7) In subsection (6) “petroleum operations” means operations related to the various phases of the petroleum industry and includes exploring for, producing, refining, transporting and marketing petroleum or petroleum products or both and manufacturing and marketing of petroleum-based products and petro-chemicals.

10C. (Repealed by Act No. 2 of 2006).

10D. (1) Subject to this section, where in a year of income commencing from the year 1994, a company under this section makes a contribution to its catastrophe reserve fund, there shall be allowed as a deduction in ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income, such contribution up to a maximum of twenty per cent of the net written premium income of the company.

Deductions of contributions to catastrophe reserve fund. [3 of 1994].

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply—

- (a) where the catastrophe reserve fund is equal to or exceeds the net written premium income of the company in a year of income; or
- (b) to that portion of a contribution which will cause the fund to exceed the net written premium income of the company in a year of income.

(3) All amounts received in a year of income by a company, as income derived from the investment of its catastrophe reserve fund, shall not be included in computing the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income, where the fund does not exceed the net written premium income in that year.

(4) Where deductions in respect of amounts contributed by a company to its catastrophe reserve fund have been allowed under this section, and the company ceases to carry on its property insurance business, the amounts comprising the fund in the year in which the company ceases to carry on the property insurance business, shall be taken into account in determining the chargeable profits of the company for that year.

(5) The trustee of the fund established by a company which ceases its property insurance business under subsection (4) shall—

- (a) deduct an amount equal to twenty-five per cent of the amount comprising the fund at the date when the company ceases the business; and
- (b) remit the amount deducted in paragraph (a) to the Board on account of the corporation tax of the company for the year in which it ceases the business.

(6) The trustee of a catastrophe reserve fund shall submit to the Board accounts in respect of that fund within three months from the end of the accounting period of the company which established the fund.

(7) For the purposes of this section—

Ch. 84:01.

“catastrophe reserve fund” or “fund” means a fund established by a company under section 49A of the Insurance Act;

“company” means a company registered under the Insurance Act to carry on property insurance business insuring against catastrophe risks;

“net written premium income” means the income of a company from premiums derived from its property insurance business, after deducting reinsurance premiums for catastrophe risk reinsurance;

“property insurance business” means the business of effecting and carrying out contracts of insurance against risks of loss of or damage to property, not being risks of such kinds that the business of effecting and carrying out contracts of insurance against them constitutes marine, aviation and transport insurance business or motor insurance business.

Expenses incurred in respect of training. [2 of 2013].

10E. In computing for the purposes of corporation tax the profits of a company for a year of income, there shall be allowed expenses reasonably incurred in the training and retraining of the employees of the company up to one hundred and fifty per cent of such expenditure.

Bonds, notes, debentures, other debt securities. [39 of 2000 4 of 2014].

10F. (1) Where in a year of income commencing from the year 1998, a company acquires from the holder of a bond, note, debenture or other similar debt security the right to receive the income derived from any of those debt securities, there shall be allowed as a deduction from the income from any source, in ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income, all outgoings and expenses wholly and exclusively incurred by that company in respect of the acquisition of the income in relation to those debt securities, whether or not such income is exempt from tax under this Act or any other written law.

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1), all outgoings and expenses wholly and exclusively incurred by the company in respect of the acquisition of the income in relation to those debt securities whether or not such income is exempt from tax under this Act or any other written law shall not include purchase consideration paid.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the outgoing and expenses incurred by a company in acquiring the right to receive the income derived from a debt security referred to in subsection (1) shall include interest expenses, investment fees for the purchase of interest coupons relating to such debt security.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply to outgoings and expenses incurred by a company in relation to strips of bonds or other securities that were not originally issued either in Trinidad and Tobago or in a CARICOM Member State.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), a “CARICOM Member State” means a State Party to the Revised Treaty of Chaguaramas including the Single Market and Economy signed in 2001 in Nassau, Bahamas.

10G. (1) Subject to section 10L, where in a year of income commencing from the year 2001, a company incurs expenditure in respect of an artistic work, there shall be allowed as a deduction, in ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income, the actual expenditure incurred up to a maximum of three million dollars.

Art and culture allowance. [91 of 2000 2 of 2002 5 of 2004 2 of 2006 13 of 2010 2 of 2013].

(2) In respect of a visual work of art—

- (a) the deduction may only be claimed in respect of the initial acquisition of the work; and
- (b) the deduction may be allowed where the work—
 - (i) is done by a national of Trinidad and Tobago; and
 - (ii) is certified by an art gallery, which shall submit a valuation of the work done.

(3) In the case of a performing art, the deduction shall only apply where—

- (a) the work is done by a national of Trinidad and Tobago; and
- (b) the national rendering such work is registered with the Ministry with responsibility for culture or with the Tobago House of Assembly, in the case of a national residing in Tobago.

(4) In this section “artistic work” means any work of art, whether visual or performing.

Scholarship allowance. [91 of 2000].

10H. (1) In ascertaining the chargeable profits of a company for a year of income commencing from the year 2000, there shall be allowed the actual expenses incurred in granting scholarships to nationals who are not employees, directors or associates of directors of that company, for tertiary education at institutions and in areas of study accredited and approved respectively by the Ministry with responsibility for education.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), an “associate” includes the spouse, parent, child, brother, sister or partner of a person.

Deduction of expenditure by promoters or sponsors of sporting activities and sportsmen. [2 of 2002, 5 of 2004, 207/2005, 2 of 2006, 13 of 2010, 2 of 2013].

10I. (1) Subject to section 10L, where in a year of income commencing from the year 2003, a company promotes or sponsors sporting activities or events or sportsmen, there shall be allowed as a deduction, in ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income the actual expenditure incurred in respect of such promotion or sponsorship, up to a maximum of three million dollars.

(2) In the case of a sportsman sponsored by a company, the deduction shall only apply where the sportsman is a national of Trinidad and Tobago.

(3) In this section, “sporting activities or events” means athletics, badminton, basketball, amateur boxing, martial arts, wrestling, cricket, cycling, model aeroplane flying, football, rugby, golf, hockey, netball, baseball, polo, swimming, tennis, weightlifting, yachting, automobile sports, surfing, archery, scrabble, table tennis, body building, taekwondo, billiards/snookers, bridge/other card games, tagby, chess, squash, darts, draughts/checkers, volleyball, equestrian, windsurfing, game fishing, gymnastics, judo, karate, karting, kickboxing, life saving, softball, target archery, pigeon racing, recreational diving, special olympics, powerboat racing, para olympics, rifle shooting, sailing, model car racing, cricket (windball), triathlon, powerlifting and such other activities or events as may be prescribed, under subsection (4) by the Minister with responsibility for Sports.

(4) The Minister to whom responsibility for sports is assigned may, by Order, amend the list of sporting activities or events detailed in subsection (3).

(5) For the purposes of this section “sportsman” means an individual engaged in sporting activities or events.

10J. Subject to section 10L, where in a year of income commencing from the year 2003, a company sponsors audio, visual or video productions for the purposes of local education or local entertainment or reflecting local culture for radio or television, there shall be allowed as a deduction, in ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income, an allowance of one hundred and fifty per cent of the actual expenditure incurred in respect of such productions up to a maximum of three million dollars.

Deduction of expenditure by sponsors for audio, visual or video productions. [2 of 2002 5 of 2004 2 of 2006 17 of 2007 13 of 2010 2 of 2013].

10K. Where in a year of income commencing from 1st January 2006, a production company incurs expenditure in respect of its own audio, visual or video productions for educational purposes or promoting or reflecting local entertainment or local culture for use in radio, television or cinematograph works, there shall be allowed as a deduction in ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income, an allowance equal to one hundred and fifty per cent of the actual expenditure incurred in making such productions up to a maximum of three million dollars.

Deduction of expenditure by a production company. [17 of 2007 13 of 2010 2 of 2013].

10L. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining the chargeable profits of a company for a year of income, the aggregate allowance that may be claimed under sections 10G, 10I, 10J and 10Q shall not exceed the sum of three million dollars.

Assessing chargeable profits. [2 of 2002 5 of 2004 2 of 2006 17 of 2007 13 of 2010 2 of 2013].

(2) In the case of a production company, in addition to the deduction allowed under section 10K, the company shall be entitled to claim an aggregate allowance of up to a maximum of two million dollars with respect to sums paid to finance sporting activities and artistic works not related to its own business.

10M. For the removal of doubt a company which is granted an allowance under sections 10G, 10H, 10I and 10J shall not also be entitled to a deduction under section 10 of the Income Tax Act as applies to the Corporation Tax Act.

Double deductions prohibited. [2 of 2002 2 of 2006]. Ch. 75:01. Ch. 75:02.

the Minister.
[5 of 2004
2 of 2006].

10N. For the purposes of section 10J—

- (a) the Minister with responsibility for education shall issue a certificate, in respect of a production for educational purposes referred to therein, to the effect that the production is for educational purposes;
- (b) the Minister with responsibility for culture shall issue a certificate in respect of a production to promote or reflect local entertainment or culture referred to therein, in the manner prescribed to the effect that the production is to promote or reflect local entertainment or culture, and a deduction shall not be allowed by the Board in the absence of such certificate.

Covenanted
donations.
[21 of 2005
2 of 2006
13 of 2010].

10O. (1) Notwithstanding section 7(3)(b), but subject to subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5) where, in a year of income, a company makes a covenanted donation to charity, the company shall be entitled to claim as a deduction, in ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income, an allowance equal to the amount of the covenanted donation payable during that year not exceeding fifteen per cent of the total income of the company.

(2) (Repealed by Act No. 2 of 2006).

(3) A company shall not be entitled to claim as a deduction under subsection (1), an allowance which is more than the actual expenditure incurred during that year of income.

(4) A company shall not be entitled to the allowance under this section where the deed or other agreement under which the covenanted donation to charity is made has not been duly stamped in accordance with the Stamp Duty Act by the 31st December of the year in which the deed or agreement was executed.

Ch. 76:01.

(5) For the removal of doubt, a company which is granted an allowance under this section shall not also be entitled to a deduction under sections 10G, 10H, 10I and 10J in respect of the expenditure claimed under this section.

(5A) (Repealed by Act No. 2 of 2006).

(6) For the purposes of this section “covenanted donation to charity” means a payment under a deed of covenant or other agreement, made by a company in favour of—

- (a) a sporting body of persons as defined by section 6(2) approved by the President in writing;
- (b) an ecclesiastical, charitable, or educational institution of a public character approved by the President in writing; or
- (c) the Children’s Life Fund established under the Children’s Life Fund Act.

Ch. 29:01.

- (a) the design of energy saving systems; and
- (b) the installation of the energy saving systems, in the company, that company shall be entitled to an allowance equal to one hundred and fifty per cent of the expenditure actually incurred.

10Q. Subject to section 10L, where in a year of income commencing from the year 2013, a company incurs expenditure in promoting the fashion industry, there shall be allowed as a deduction, in ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company for that year of income, an allowance equal to one hundred and fifty per cent of the actual expenditure incurred in respect of such promotions up to a maximum of three million dollars.

Deductions of expenditure for sponsors of fashion industry. [2 of 2013].

CLOSE COMPANIES

11. (1) A close company shall distribute as dividend profits which can be distributed without detriment to the company’s business.

Power to direct distribution of certain profits.

(2) With a view to preventing the avoidance of the payment of tax through the withholding from distribution of the profits of a close company which could otherwise be distributed, it is hereby enacted that where it appears to the Board that such a company has not distributed to its members, as dividend, profits which could be distributed without detriment to the company's existing business, the Board, by notice in writing to the company, may direct that such profits shall thereupon be distributed, so, however, that in determining whether any company has or has not distributed profits that could be distributed as aforesaid, the Board shall have regard to the current needs and future development requirements of the company's business.

(3) Where, during any year of income, a close company, on an application made in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time, satisfies the Board on the basis of concrete evidence that such distribution would be prejudicial to the current needs or to the future development requirements or both of the company, the Board may relieve the company from compliance with the directions under this section to such extent as it may consider appropriate, and the company shall thereupon be so relieved, so, however, that if the Board refuses so to relieve the company or make any direction with which the company is dissatisfied, the company aggrieved thereby may appeal to the Appeal Board within twenty-eight days of receipt of notice of the refusal or direction with which the company is dissatisfied, notwithstanding no assessment has been made.

Deductions for director's remuneration.

Ch. 85:04.

12. (1) In computing the profits of a close company for any year of income for the purpose of ascertaining the chargeable profits of the company, the deduction that may be made for the remuneration by way of fees of director other than a whole-time service director shall not, subject to this section, exceed 10 per cent of the chargeable profits, before making the deduction for that remuneration or for initial allowances, other than the allowance in respect of annual depreciation provided for by the Income Tax (In Aid of Industry) Act, but so that the deduction does not exceed three thousand dollars for each such director.

(2) In computing the profits of a close company for any year of income there may be allowed a deduction for the remuneration by way of fees paid to any director, who is required to devote substantially the whole of his time to the service of the company in a managerial or technical capacity of an amount not exceeding—

- (a) fifteen thousand dollars, in the case of the highest paid director;

(b) ten thousand dollars, in any other case,

so, however, that where any such director receives remuneration by way of a salary as a full-time employee of the company, the company may not claim as a deductible expense an amount in excess of six thousand dollars in respect of the fees so paid.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, where any sum paid to a director of a close company exceeds an amount which in the opinion of the Board appears to be fair and reasonable in view of the time provided by the director to the affairs of the company, the Board may deem the excess of the amount paid to such director over what is considered to be fair and reasonable, to be a distribution by the company to such a director.

13. The provisions of the Third Schedule shall have effect for the interpretation and operation of the foregoing sections of this Act relating to close companies, and those sections shall have effect subject to and in accordance with the provisions of that Schedule.

Supplementary provisions about close companies. Third Schedule.

SPECIAL CLASSES OF COMPANIES

14. The provisions of the Fourth Schedule shall have effect for the purpose of ascertaining the chargeable profits and the tax payable thereon of Insurance Companies (including Life Insurance Companies), Shipping Companies and Air Navigation Companies.

Special provisions as to Insurance Companies and Shipping Companies, etc. Fourth Schedule.

15. The provisions of the Fifth Schedule shall apply for the purpose of ascertaining the chargeable profits and the tax payable thereon of approved mortgage and other companies, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this or in any other written law, the provisions of sections 42 to 46 of the Income Tax Act as renumbered shall apply to an approved mortgage or other company referred to in the said Schedule for the purposes of this Part.

Approved mortgage companies, etc. [11 of 1988]. Fifth Schedule.

Ch. 75:01.

16. (1) Subject to this section, for the purpose of ascertaining the chargeable profits of an approved property development company, there shall be deducted an amount equal to fifteen per cent of any capital expenditure incurred by that company in the construction of a building that is to be used for commercial or industrial purposes by the company or a purchaser

Deduction for capital expenditure by approved property development company. [17 of 2007 13 of 2010].

or lessee thereof, where the construction of the building is proved to the satisfaction of the Board to have commenced—

(a) before 31st December 2005 and is completed on or before 31st December 2007; or

*(b) on or after 1st January 2008 and is completed on or before 31st December 2014.

(2) Where the period of construction of a building to which subsection (1) applies extends over more than one year of income, the deduction shall be allowed only in the year of income in which the building is completed.

(3) Where part of a building is to be used for commercial or industrial purposes and the capital expenditure incurred in the construction of that part of the building which is not to be used for commercial or industrial purposes—

(a) does not exceed one-tenth of the total capital expenditure incurred in the construction of the entire building, the deduction allowed under subsection (1) shall apply to the total capital expenditure incurred in the construction of the building;

(b) exceeds one-tenth but does not exceed one-half of the total capital expenditure incurred in the construction of the entire building, the deduction allowed under subsection (1) shall apply only to the capital expenditure incurred in the construction of that part of the building which is to be used for commercial or industrial purposes; or

(c) exceeds one-half of the total capital expenditure incurred in the construction of the entire building, no deduction shall be allowed under subsection (1).

(4) For the purposes of this section, the Board may approve a company as an approved property development company, if it is satisfied that the company—

(a) has a paid-up share capital of not less than one million dollars; and

(b) is locally owned and controlled.

*This paragraph took effect from 1st January 2008. (See Act No. 13 of 2010).

(5) The Board may, in approving a company for the purposes of this section, impose such conditions as it may consider necessary or expedient.

(6) Where the Board refuses to approve a company as an approved property development company, it shall, within thirty days of the refusal, inform the company by notice in writing of its refusal to grant the approval.

(7) Where the Board is of the opinion that an approved property development company—

- (a) has ceased to comply with the requirements of section 4;
- (b) failed to construct the building within the time specified in subsection (1); or
- (c) has failed to comply with any condition imposed by the Board, the Board may, by notice in writing, withdraw its approval from the date specified in the notice and the provisions of subsection (1) shall cease to apply from that date.

(8) The deduction allowed under subsection (1) does not preclude the grant of an initial allowance or annual allowance to which the company may be entitled under the Income Tax (In Aid of Industry) Act. Ch. 85:04.

(9) In this section—

“building” includes any structure of a permanent nature which forms part of or is attached to a building;

“commercial or industrial purposes”, in relation to the use of a building, does not include use for the purposes of a school, college, university, club, hotel, hospital, private hospital or of public entertainment or amusement;

“locally owned or controlled”, in relation to a company, means a company in which nationals beneficially own shares carrying between them, directly or indirectly—

- (a) the right to exercise more than one-half of the voting power of the company;
- (b) the right to receive more than one-half of any dividend that may be paid by that company; and

- (c) the right to receive more than one-half of any capital distribution in the event of the winding up or of a reduction in the share capital of that company;

“nationals” means citizens of Trinidad and Tobago and persons who, under any law relating to immigration are regarded as belonging thereto or having the status of residents, and includes companies controlled by such persons or by companies so controlled as specified in the definition of “locally owned or controlled”, and partnerships the majority share in which and the management of which are owned and controlled by such persons.

Tax credit on interest paid by mutual funds. [8 of 1996, 9 of 1997]. Ch. 75:01.

- 16I. (1) Where, in a year of income, the profits of—
- (a) an approved fund or scheme under section 27(1)(c) of the Income Tax Act;
 - (b) a sporting body or institution approved by the President under section 6(1)(e) or (g);
 - (c) an approved annuity business not subject to tax under this Act, include—

- (i) a dividend paid by a financial institution carrying on unit trust business and licensed under the Financial Institutions Act;
- (ii) the amount or value of a distribution paid by the Unit Trust Corporation of Trinidad and Tobago, payable out of interest in respect of which tax has been deducted under section 3B, such approved fund or scheme, approved sporting body or institution or approved annuity business is entitled in that year of income to a tax credit equivalent to the tax deducted on the portion of the interest that relates to the dividend or distribution received.

Ch. 79:09.

(2) The tax credit referred to in subsection (1) shall not be granted unless a certificate from the trust or the Unit Trust Corporation of Trinidad and Tobago is produced in support of the claim for relief.

(3) The certificate shall state the amount of tax deducted on that portion of the interest that relates to the dividend or distribution received.

(4) Notwithstanding the repeal of section 3B by the Provisional Collection of Taxes (No. 2) Order 1996, this section shall continue to have effect for the purposes of subsection (5), as though section 3B had not been repealed.

(5) Where an approved fund or scheme, approved sporting body or institution or approved annuity business is, in relation to the year of income ending 31st December 1996, entitled to a tax credit under subsection (1), which exceeds the amount of tax for which it is assessed, such approved fund or scheme, approved sporting body or institution or approved annuity business, as the case may be, shall be entitled in relation to that year of income to a refund equivalent to the difference between the amount of the tax credit and the amount of the tax assessed.

16J. Where in any year of income, an investor makes an investment in the initial ordinary share capital of the Export Import Bank, that investor shall be entitled to a tax credit of ten per cent of the amount of the investment for each of the three years following the year of income in which the investment was made.

Tax credit from Export Import Bank.
[37 of 2000].

17. (1) Except in so far as this Part otherwise provides, the Income Tax (In Aid of Industry) Act and any provisions of the Income Tax Act relating to the making of allowances or charges under or in accordance with the said Income Tax (In Aid of Industry) Act apply equally for purposes of corporation tax and for purposes of income tax.

Application and adaptation of Income Tax Act
as to capital allowance and other matters.
[6 of 1989].
Ch. 85:04.
Ch. 75:01.

(2) For purposes of corporation tax the right to an allowance or liability to a charge for a year of income and the rate or amount of any such allowance or charge, shall be determined under the provisions referred in subsection (1) by applying the law in force for the year of income.

(3) Where by virtue of this Part any provision of the Income Tax Act applies both to income tax and to corporation tax, it shall not be affected in its operation by the fact that they are distinct taxes but, so far as consistent with this Part, shall apply in relation to income tax and corporation tax as if they were one tax, so that, in particular, a matter which in a case involving two individuals is relevant for both of them in relation to income tax shall in a like case involving an individual and a company be relevant for him in relation to that tax and for it in relation to corporation tax; and for that purpose in any such provision of the Income Tax Act references to a deduction or allowance for the purpose of ascertaining chargeable income or to a specified provision of that Income Tax Act shall, in the absence of or subject to any express adaptation made by this Act, be construed as being or including a reference to any corresponding deduction or allowance for the purpose of ascertaining chargeable profits or to any corresponding provision of this Part.

Double taxation relief.
[6 of 1989].
Ch. 75:01.

18. (1) Subject to any express amendments made by this Part, sections 93 and 95 of the Income Tax Act together with any other written law relating or referring to double taxation relief shall have effect in relation to corporation tax and profits chargeable thereto as they are expressed to have effect in relation to income tax and income chargeable thereto.

Fifth Schedule.

(2) Where dividends are paid by a company resident in a country outside Trinidad and Tobago to a company resident in Trinidad and Tobago which controls directly or indirectly not less than one-quarter of the voting power of the company paying the dividends, then for the purpose of allowing credit against corporation tax in respect of the dividends in accordance with the Fifth Schedule to the Income Tax Act any Trinidad and Tobago tax payable by the first-mentioned company in respect of its profits (whether income tax or corporation tax) and any tax so payable under the law of any country outside Trinidad and Tobago, shall be taken into account as if it were tax payable under the law of the first-mentioned country.

(3) For the purposes of this section a company shall be deemed to control, directly or indirectly, not less than one-quarter of the voting power in another company if a third company having control also controls directly or indirectly not less than one-half of the voting power in the first-mentioned company.

Interpretation.
[9 of 1997].

18A. In sections 18B to 18L—
“accounting period” means the period in respect of which corporation tax is chargeable;
“claimant company” means a company which utilises the trading loss of a surrendering company;

“group relief” means relief that allows the current trading losses of a surrendering company to be set off, by way of relief from corporation tax, against the chargeable profits of claimant company, whether in whole or in part, where throughout their respective accounting periods, both companies satisfy the provisions of the group test set out in section 18C;

“surrendering company” means a company which incurs a trading loss and surrenders that loss to another company for the purpose of group relief;

“trading loss” means a loss referred to in section 16 of the Income Tax Act but does not include capital allowances and expenses payable to a group member and claimed as a deduction if corresponding amounts have not been included in the profit of the other group member for a year of income. Ch. 75:01.

18B. Group relief for trading losses may be claimed by a company in accordance with the provisions of sections 18C to 18L. Relief for trading losses. [9 of 1997].

18C. Group relief shall be available where—

- Group relief available. [9 of 1997].
- (a) the surrendering company and the claimant company are resident in Trinidad and Tobago and are both members of the same group throughout the respective accounting periods of both companies; and
 - (b) the surrendering company and the claimant company are members of the same group in which one company is a 100 per cent subsidiary of the other company or both companies are 100 per cent subsidiaries of a third company by way of direct or indirect ownership.

18D. A company shall not be treated as the owner of a 100 per cent subsidiary for the purposes of sections 18B to 18M if share ownership includes— A company not a 100 per cent subsidiary. [9 of 1997].

- (a) any share capital which it owns directly in a body corporate if a profit on a sale of the shares would be treated as a trading receipt of its trade;

- (b) any share capital which it owns indirectly and which is owned directly by a body corporate for which a profit on the sale of the shares would be a trading receipt;
- (c) any share capital which it owns directly or indirectly in a body corporate not resident in Trinidad and Tobago.

Company not to be treated as a 100 per cent subsidiary. [9 of 1997].

18E. Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of section 18C, a company shall not be treated as a 100 per cent subsidiary of another company for the purposes of group relief, unless at the time of the claim—

- (a) the parent company is beneficially entitled to not less than 100 per cent of any profits available for distribution to ordinary shareholders of the subsidiary company; and
- (b) the parent company would be beneficially entitled to not less than 100 per cent of any assets of the subsidiary company available for distribution to its ordinary shareholders on a winding up.

Set off of trading loss. [9 of 1997].

18F. If in any year of income, the surrendering company incurs a loss in carrying on its trade, the amount of the loss may be set off against the total chargeable profits of the claimant company for the corresponding accounting periods of the claimant company.

Claims for giving relief. [9 of 1997].

18G. (1) A company claiming for group relief shall not be entitled to such relief unless the company—

- (a) has claimed all of its available capital allowances; and
- (b) has utilised any of its own tax losses brought forward.

(2) A claim for group relief shall be made or withdrawn within two years of—

- (a) the end of the claimant company's accounting period; and
- (b) the end of the date of the surrendering company's accounting period to which the claim relates.

- (3) A claim for group relief shall specify—
- (a) the name of the claimant company;
 - (b) the accounting period for which the relief is claimed by the claimant company;
 - (c) the name of the surrendering company;
 - (d) the accounting period for which relief is claimed by the surrendering company;
 - (e) the amount claimed in respect of the surrendering company; and
 - (f) the total amount of profits of the claimant company to be covered by group relief.

18H. The reduction, by means of group relief, of tax payable by a claimant company in a year of income shall not exceed 25 per cent of the amount of tax which would have been payable had the relief not been granted.

Limit to group relief. [9 of 1997].

18I. (1) For the purposes of group relief, an accounting period of the claimant company which falls wholly or partly within an accounting period of the surrendering company corresponds to the accounting period of the surrendering company.

Corresponding accounting period. [9 of 1997].

(2) Where an accounting period of the surrendering company and a corresponding accounting period of the claimant company do not coincide—

- (a) the amount which may be set off against the total chargeable profits of the claimant company for the corresponding accounting period shall be reduced by applying the fraction where that fraction is less than unity; and

$$\frac{A}{B}$$

- (b) the total profits of the claimant company for the corresponding accounting period shall be reduced by applying the fraction where that fraction is less than unity.

$$\frac{A}{C}$$

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)—
- (a) “A” is the length of the period common to the two accounting periods;
 - (b) “B” is the length of the accounting period of the surrendering company; and
 - (c) “C” is the length of the corresponding accounting period of the claimant company.

Denial of group relief. [9 of 1997].

18J. Group relief shall be denied—

- (a) where the Board of Inland Revenue is of the opinion that a transaction which reduces or would reduce the amount of tax payable by the claimant company exists between the claimant company and the surrendering company and is artificial or fictitious; or
- (b) to companies which are only temporary group members.

Relief obtainable once for the same amount. [9 of 1997].

18K. (1) Relief shall not be given more than once in respect of the same amount, in any accounting period, to the surrendering company.

- (2) Two or more claimant companies shall not—
 - (a) in respect of any one loss or other amount for which group relief may be given;
 - (b) whatever their accounting periods corresponding to that of the surrendering company, obtain, in all, more relief than could be obtained by a single claimant company whose corresponding accounting period coincides with the accounting period of the surrendering company.

Aggregate of claim. [9 of 1997].

18L. (1) Subject to subsection (2), two or more claimant companies may make claims relating to the same surrendering company and to the same accounting period of that surrendering company.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where the claimant companies referred to in subsection (1) make claims, the aggregate of the claims shall not exceed the amount of the loss surrendered by the surrendering company.

18M. Group relief shall not apply to companies that are subject to taxation under the Petroleum Taxes Act.

Non-application of relief. [9 of 1997]. Ch. 75:04.

19. (1) The corporation tax shall be under the care and management of the Board of Inland Revenue and, subject to sections 7 and 10, the provisions of the Income Tax Act in the Table below shall apply in relation to corporation tax as they apply in relation to income tax chargeable under the Income Tax Act but subject to any necessary modifications and adaptations.

Application of certain provisions of the Act. [32 of 1969 30 of 1974 14 of 1987 11 of 1988 6 of 1989 6 of 1991 14 of 1994 22 of 1994 5 of 1995 8 of 1996 35 of 1998 91 of 2000 21 of 2005 2 of 2006 30 of 2007]. Ch. 75:01.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of sections 70(1)(b), 70(1)(c), 70(2), 71(2), 74(1) and 74(4) of the Income Tax Act, the said sections shall form part of the Table below.

Penalty for late filing.
 [5 of 1995
 2 of 2002].

19A. (1) A company which fails, neglects or refuses to furnish a return of income for the year of income 1994 and subsequent years after six months from the time required to file the return, shall, thereafter, in addition to any other penalty provided in this Act, be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars for every six months or part thereof during which such failure, neglect or refusal continues.

(2) A company which has not furnished a return of income for any year of income preceding the year of income 1994 and fails, neglects or refuses to furnish such return on or before 31st October 1995 shall, in addition to any other penalty provided in the Act, be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars in respect of any such return for every six months or part thereof during which such failure, neglect or refusal continues.

(3) The Board may waive or reduce the penalty for late filing in circumstances where it is just and equitable to do so.

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

20. (1) An auctioneer, and any person carrying on a trade of dealing in any description of tangible movable property, or of acting as an agent or intermediary in dealings in any description of tangible movable property, may be required by the Board to deliver a return giving particulars of any transaction effected by or through him in which any asset which is tangible movable property is disposed of. FIRST SCHEDULE

RATE OF CORPORATION TAX

1. For every dollar of the chargeable profits of a company, twenty-five per cent, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs 2 and 3 in the case of the long-term insurance business of an assurance company.

2. In the case of the long-term insurance business of an assurance company the rate of tax shall be fifteen per cent, except that where profits of that business are transferred to the shareholder's account, a corresponding amount of the profits of the accounting period ending in the year of income in which the transfer was made shall be treated as chargeable at the rate of twenty-five per cent, and where there is an insufficiency of such profits of that accounting period the amount by which the profits so transferred exceeds the profits of such period shall be deemed to be profits of that period after making allowance for any tax previously paid.

3. (1) Companies engaged in the—

- (a) liquefaction of natural gas;
- (b) manufacture of petro-chemicals;
- (c) physical separation of liquids from a natural gas stream and natural gas processing from a natural gas stream;
- (d) transmission and distribution of natural gas;
- (e) wholesale marketing and distribution of petroleum products; and
- (f) any other activity prescribed by Order of the Minister with responsibility for finance, shall be subject to corporation tax at the rate of thirty-five per cent per annum.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, companies engaged in the wholesale marketing and distribution of petroleum products shall not include companies—

- (a) operating a liquid petroleum gas filling plant or conducting a refilling operation;
- (b) involved in the sale and distribution of leaded and unleaded gasoline, diesel and kerosene lubricants and other car care products; or

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS ABOUT
CLOSE COMPANIES

1. (1) For purposes of this Part of this Act, a “close company” is one which is under the control of five or fewer participators or of participators who are directors, except that the expression does not apply—

- (a) to a non-resident company;
- (b) to a statutory or registered building or friendly society;
- (c) to a company controlled by or on behalf of the State; or
- (d) to a company falling within subparagraph (2).

(2) A company is not to be treated as a close company in any case where—

- (a) by reason of beneficial ownership of shares in the company the control of it is in the hands of a company which is not a close company or of two or more companies none of which is a close company; and
- (b) it could only be treated as a close company as being under the control of five or fewer participators, and it cannot be so treated except by taking as one of the participators a company which is not a close company, but so that references in this subparagraph to a close company, shall be construed as applying to any company which, if a resident company, would be a close company.

2. For purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to close companies, a company is to be treated as another’s “associated company” at a given time if at that time, or at any time within one year previously, one of the two has control of the other or both are under the control of the same person or persons.

CONTROL

3. (1) For purposes of this Part, a person shall be taken to have control of a company—

- (a) if he exercises, or is able to exercise, or is entitled to acquire, control, whether direct or indirect, over the company’s affairs, and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the preceding words, if he possesses or is entitled to acquire, the greater part of the share capital or voting power in the company; or

- (b) if he possesses or is entitled to acquire, either—
- (i) the greater part of the issued share capital of the company;
 - (ii) such part of that capital as would, if the whole of the profits of the company were in fact distributed to the members, entitle him to receive the greater part of the amount so distributed; or
 - (iii) such redeemable share capital as would entitle him to receive on its redemption the greater part of the assets which, in the event of a winding up, would be available for distribution among members; or
- (c) if in the event of a winding up he would be entitled to the greater part of the assets available for distribution among members.

Where two or more persons together satisfy any of the conditions in paragraphs (a) to (c), they shall be taken to have control of the company.

(2) In subparagraph (1), “member” includes any person having a share or interest in the capital or profits of the company, and for purposes of that subparagraph a person shall be treated as entitled to acquire anything which he is entitled to acquire at a future date or will at a future date be entitled to acquire; but for the purposes of subparagraphs (1)(b)(iii) and (c) any such loan creditor as is mentioned in paragraph 4(1)(b) may be treated as a member (and the references to share capital as including loan capital).

(3) For purposes of subparagraph (1) there shall be attributed to any person any rights or powers of a nominee for him, that is to say, rights or powers which another person possesses on his behalf or may be required to exercise on his direction or behalf.

(4) For purposes of subparagraph (1) there may also be attributed to any person all the rights and powers of any company of which he has, or he and associates of his have, control or any two or more such companies, or of any associate of his or of any two or more associates of his, including those attributed to a company or associate under subparagraph (3) but not those attributed to an associate under this subparagraph; and such attributions shall be made under this subparagraph as will result in the company being treated as under the control of five or fewer participators, if it can be so treated.

“PARTICIPATOR” AND “ASSOCIATE”

4. (1) For purposes of this Part, a “participator” is, in relation to any company, a person having a share or interest in the capital or profits of the company and, without prejudice to the generality of the preceding words, includes—

- (a) any person who possesses or is entitled to acquire share capital or voting rights in the company;
- (b) any person who is a loan creditor of the company otherwise than in respect of any loan capital or debt issued or incurred by the company for money lent by him to the company in the ordinary course of a business of banking carried on by him;
- (c) any person who possesses or is entitled to acquire a right to receive or to participate in the distributions of the company or any amounts payable by the company (in cash or in kind) to loan creditors by way of premium on redemption;
- (d) any person who is entitled to secure that the profits or assets (whether present or future) of the company will be applied directly or indirectly for his benefit.

(2) In subparagraph (1), references to “being entitled to do anything” apply where a person is presently entitled to do it at a future date or will at a future date be entitled to do it; and “loan creditor” means a creditor in respect of any redeemable loan capital issued by the company or in respect of any debt incurred by the company, being a debt—

- (a) for money borrowed or capital assets acquired by the company;
- (b) for any right to receive profits created in favour of the company; or
- (c) for consideration the value of which to the company was (at the time when the debt was incurred) substantially less than the amount of the debt (including any premium thereon).

5. For the purposes of this Act relating to close companies, “associate” means, in relation to a participator—

- (a) a person in any of the following relationships to the participator, that is to say, husband or wife, parent or remoter forebear, child or remoter issue, brother or sister, and partner;
- (b) the trustee or trustees of any settlement in relation to which the participator is, or any such relative of his (living or dead) as is mentioned in subparagraph (a) is or was, a settlor “settlement” and “settlor” here having the same meaning as in section 72 of the Income Tax Act and “relative” including a husband or wife;
- (c) where the participator is interested in any shares or obligations of the company which are subject to any trust or are part of the estate of a deceased person, any other person interested therein, and has a corresponding meaning in relation to a person other than a participator.

Ch. 75:01.

“DIRECTOR” AND “WHOLE-TIME SERVICE DIRECTOR”

6. (1) For purposes of this Act relating to close companies, “director” and “whole-time service director” have the meanings assigned to them by this paragraph.

(2) “Director” includes any person occupying the position of director by whatever name called, any person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors are accustomed to act and any person who—

- (a) is a manager of the company or otherwise concerned in the management of the company’s trade or business; and
- (b) is remunerated out of the funds of that trade or business; and
- (c) is either on his own or with one or more associates, the beneficial owner of, or able, directly through the medium of other companies or by any other indirect means, to control twenty per cent, or over of the ordinary share capital of the company (“ordinary share capital” here meaning all the issued share capital, by whatever name called, other than capital the holders whereof have a right to a dividend at a fixed rate but have no other right to share in the profits of the company).

(3) “Whole-time Service Director” means a director who is required to devote substantially the whole of his time to the service of the company in a managerial or technical capacity and is not, either on his own or with one or more associates, the beneficial owner of, or able, directly or through the medium of other companies or by any other indirect means, to control, more than five per cent of the ordinary share capital of the company [“ordinary share capital” here having the same meaning as in subparagraph (2)(c)].

FOURTH SCHEDULEINSURANCE, SHIPPING AND AIR NAVIGATION COMPANIES

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Part I of this Act, it is hereby provided that—

(1) In the case of a non-resident assurance company (other than the long-term insurance business of such company), the profits on which corporation tax is payable shall be the full amount of the profits of the company’s business directly or indirectly accruing in or derived from Trinidad and Tobago as ascertained from the revenue account of the company’s business in accordance with the provisions of Part I of this Act;

UNOFFICIAL VERSION

UPDATED TO DECEMBER 31ST 2015

(2) In the case of a resident assurance company (other than the long-term insurance business of such company), the profits on which corporation tax is payable shall be the full amount of the profits of the company's business whenever carried on as ascertained from the revenue account of the company's business in accordance with the provisions of Part I of this Act;

(3) (a) in the case of a shipowner, the profits of his business as shipowner shall, if he produces or causes to be produced to the Board the certificate mentioned in subparagraph (b) of this paragraph, be taken to be a sum bearing the same ratio to the sums payable in respect of fares or freight for passengers, goods, or mails shipped in Trinidad and Tobago as the aggregate profits for the year of income shown by that certificate bears to the gross earnings for that period;

(b) the certificate shall be a certificate by the taxing authority of the place in which the principal place of business of the shipowner is situated and shall state—

(i) that the shipowner has furnished to the satisfaction of that authority account of the whole of his business; and

(ii) the ratio of the profits for the year of income as computed according to the tax law of that place (after deducting interest on any money borrowed and employed in acquiring the profits) to the aggregate of the amount of receipts of the shipowner's fleet or vessel for that period;

(c) if the profits of a shipowner have for the purpose of assessment in Trinidad and Tobago under Part I of this Act, been computed on any basis other than the ratio of the profits shown by a certificate as aforesaid, and an assessment has been made accordingly, the shipowner shall, upon production of the certificate at any time within two years from the end of the year of income, be entitled to such adjustment as may be necessary to give effect to the said certificate and to have any tax paid in excess refunded;

(d) in this paragraph, the expression "shipowner" means an owner or charterer of ships whose principal place of business is situated outside Trinidad and Tobago.

2. (1) Where an assurance company carries on long-term insurance business in conjunction with assurance business of any other class, the long-term insurance business of the company shall for purposes of Part I of this Act be treated as a separate business from any other class of business carried on by the company.

(2) Where an assurance company carries on ordinary life insurance business, general annuity business, industrial life insurance business, approved annuity business, bond investment business, non-cancellable sickness and accident insurance business or any of them—

- (a) the ordinary life insurance business or general annuity business or both, as the case may be, shall be treated as a separate class of business; and
- (b) the industrial life insurance business, approved annuity business, bond investment business, non-cancellable sickness and accident business, as the case may be, shall each be treated as a separate class of business, and paragraph 3 relating to expenses shall apply separately to each such class of business.

(3) No loss incurred in connection with any business deemed to be a separate business under subparagraphs (1) and (2) shall be set off against the profits from any other business in any year of income but may be carried forward to be set off, to the extent provided by section 16 of the Income Tax Act as applied for the purposes of this Act against the profits of that business in succeeding years.

Ch. 75:01.

3. (1) The profits of the long-term insurance business of an assurance company on which corporation tax is payable shall be profits derived from the investment of its Statutory Fund, including, in the case of a resident company, profits from the investment of any foreign long-term insurance fund. Such profits shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of Part I of this Act, but subject, as regards expenses, to this paragraph.

(2) Subject to paragraph 2(2), for the purpose of computing the profits of the long-term insurance business of an assurance company, there shall be allowed such proportion of the outgoings and expenses as the Board may, in any case, determine being such outgoings and expenses specified in the Table below as are wholly and exclusively incurred during the year of income by such assurance company in the production of the profits.

(3) Deductions shall not be allowed for expenses directly related to annual premium income including the medical examination of policy holders, stamp duties payable on policies and other such expenses directly related to the inclusion of a policy on the books of the company; so, however, that for the year of income 1969 and subsequent years there shall be allowed the following percentages of annual premiums as agents' commissions:

Year of Income	Percentage of annual premium
	First year	Second or subsequent years
1969 	15%	2%
1970 	10%	2%
1971 	5%	2%
1972 	Nil	2%
1973 and subsequent years	Nil	Nil

(4) The profits of approved annuity business shall not be chargeable to tax except to the extent that such profits are distributed to the shareholders.

4. Where, in the case of a non-resident company, any part of the profits of its long-term insurance business is transferred to the shareholders account, the amount of the profits that is to be treated under the First Schedule of this Act as chargeable at the higher rate of tax shall be taken to be the amount produced by multiplying the total amount transferred by the ratio of the Trinidad and Tobago actuarial reserves over the company's world actuarial reserves. First Schedule.

5. (1) In this Schedule—

“foreign long-term insurance fund” means any fund representing the amount of the liability of an assurance company in respect of its long-term insurance business with policy holders and annuitants residing out of Trinidad and Tobago whose proposals were made to, or whose annuity contracts were granted by, the company at or through a branch or agency outside Trinidad and Tobago and, where such a fund is not kept separately from the Statutory Fund, means such part of the Statutory Fund as represents the liability of the company under such policies and annuity contracts, such liability being estimated in the same manner as it is estimated for the purpose of the periodical returns of the company to the supervisor under the Insurance Act;

Ch. 84:01.

“long-term insurance business” means ordinary life assurance business, general annuity business, industrial life insurance business, approved annuity business, non-cancellable sickness and accident insurance and bond investment business;

“revenue account” means the revenue account required to be kept under section 56 of the Insurance Act;

“Statutory Fund” has the same meaning as in section 3 of the Insurance Act, except that in the case of a resident company the expression shall be deemed to include the authorised and paid up share capital of the company.

(2) Subject to this paragraph, the First Schedule of the Insurance Act shall apply for the purpose of the definition of so much of the business referred to in this Schedule as are defined therein.

6. (1) Profits arising from the business of shipping carried on by a non-resident company shall be exempt from corporation tax provided that the President is satisfied that an equivalent exemption from tax is granted by the country of the non-resident company to the resident company.

(2) In this paragraph, the expression “business of shipping” means the business carried on by an owner of ships or aircraft and for the purposes of this definition the expression “owner” includes any charterer.

FIFTH SCHEDULE

[11 of 1988
18 of 1989].

TAX EXEMPTIONS FOR APPROVED MORTGAGE COMPANIES AND OTHER COMPANIES

1. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Part I of this Act but subject to subparagraph (2) and paragraph 1A(1) there shall be exempt from corporation tax any income or profits of a company derived from the business to which section 42(2)(b) to (e) of the Income Tax Act relates.

Ch. 75:01.

(2) For the purposes of subparagraph (1), the Minister may by instrument in writing declare a company to be an approved mortgage company where that company has entered into an agreement with the Government whereby the company agrees, in accordance with this Schedule and the Housing Act and under the terms of the agreement—

Ch. 33:01.

- (a) to finance by way of mortgage the purchase of newly constructed houses;
- (b) to finance by way of mortgage the repayment of loans granted for the construction of houses; and
- (c) to finance the construction of houses by providing loans under loan agreements and by taking mortgages of the houses so constructed upon completion of construction.

(2A) Notwithstanding the termination of the agreement between a company and the Government referred to in subparagraph (2), the exemptions granted under this Schedule shall apply in respect of any mortgages or loans which the Minister certifies were granted prior to the date of termination.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1(1), 2, and 4(1) that relate to the taxes with respect to which the profits of an approved mortgage company or the shareholders or the debenture holders of an approved mortgage company are exempt, the terms of the agreement mentioned in subparagraph (2) may limit the taxes from which an approved mortgage company or the shareholders or the debenture holders in the approved mortgage company are exempt.

Ch. 75:01.

1A. (1) Where the Home Mortgage Bank has entered into an agreement with the Government to buy mortgage loans from approved mortgage companies, the Home Mortgage Bank is, subject to the terms of the agreement, deemed for the purposes of section 42(2)(d) of the Income Tax Act and paragraphs 1(1), 3(3) and 5 to be an approved mortgage company in relation to any mortgage loan that it buys from an approved mortgage company.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1) or paragraph 4A(1) that relate to the taxes with respect to which the profits of the Home Mortgage Bank or the debenture holders of the Home Mortgage Bank are exempt, the terms of the agreement mentioned in subparagraph (1) may limit the taxes from which the Home Mortgage Bank or the debenture holders of the Home Mortgage Bank are exempt.

(3) Notwithstanding the termination of the agreement between the Home Mortgage Bank and the Government referred to in subparagraph (1), the exemptions granted to the Home Mortgage Bank by reason of that subparagraph shall apply in respect of any mortgage loan granted by an approved mortgage company which the Minister certifies was sold to the Home Mortgage Bank prior to the date of termination.

2. An approved mortgage company that is exempt from corporation tax under paragraph 1(1) may, within a period commencing on the date of the mortgage or loan agreement and ending two years after the date on which the repayment of the principal sum borrowed is completed, where the income is in respect of interest and service charge exempt from tax under section 42(2)(d) of the Income Tax Act, distribute sums not exceeding the exempt interest and service charge to the members of the company and these sums when so distributed are exempt from income or corporation tax in the hands of the members of the company.

Ch. 81:01.

3. (1) In this paragraph, “company” means a company limited by shares within the meaning of the Companies Act.

(2) A company that is in receipt of income or profits that are exempt from corporation tax under section 42(2)(b), (c) or (e) of the Income Tax Act may—

- (a) within twelve years after the date of completion of construction of the newly constructed house, if the premiums and rents would be exempt from corporation tax under the said section 42(2)(b);

- (b) within two years after the date of sale of the newly constructed house, if the gains or profits would be exempt from corporation tax under the said section 42(2)(c); or
- (c) within a period commencing on the date of the mortgage and ending two years after the date on which the repayment of the principal sum borrowed is completed, if the interest and service charge would be exempt from corporation tax under the said section 42(2)(e), distribute sums not exceeding in the aggregate the exempt income or profits to the members of the company and those sums when so distributed are exempt from income or corporation tax in the hands of the members of the company.

(3) This paragraph and paragraphs 2, 4 and 4A apply only where the company or approved mortgage company keeps and submits annually separate accounts to the satisfaction of the Board showing—

- (a) the income or profits of the company from the sources specified in section 42(2)(b), (c), (d) or (e) of the Income Tax Act;
- (b) all expenses and outgoings wholly and exclusively incurred in the production of the income or profits from each such source;
- (c) the debenture holders account mentioned in paragraph 4(3) or 4A(3) as the case may require; and
- (d) such other information as the Board may require.

Ch. 75:01.

4. (1) Where the income of an approved mortgage company is exempt from corporation tax under paragraph 1(1), any interest payable by the approved mortgage company on debenture borrowings by the approved mortgage company for the purpose of financing the construction of houses, the purchase of newly constructed houses, or the repayment of loans granted for the construction of houses, is, subject to subparagraphs (2) and (3), exempt from income or corporation tax in the hands of the debenture holders of the approved mortgage company, if the interest so paid is derived from income of the approved mortgage company exempt under paragraph 1(1).

(1A) Notwithstanding that an approved mortgage company sells to the Home Mortgage Bank a mortgage loan the interest or service charge payable under which is exempt from corporation tax under paragraph 1(1), if the approved mortgage company uses the proceeds of the sale to finance by way of mortgage the activities mentioned in paragraph 1(2)(a), (b) and (c) in accordance with the agreement referred to in that paragraph any interest payable on debenture borrowings which would have been exempt from income or corporation tax in the hands of the debenture holders of the approved mortgage company under subparagraph (1) but for the sale, shall continue to be so exempt.

(2) The period during which the interest paid to debenture holders is exempt from tax under subparagraph (1) is a period commencing on the date when the principal sums are paid for the debentures and ending two years after the date on which the principal sums secured by the debentures are deemed repaid under subparagraph (3).

(3) For the purposes of subparagraphs (1) and (2) any sum repaid to an approved mortgage company by the mortgagors who entered into mortgages or the borrowers who entered into loan agreements after the issue of those debentures shall, after deduction of any interest paid on those debentures, be debited against the debenture holders account until the sums so repaid to the approved mortgage company equal the principal sum secured by the debentures and thereafter the debentures shall be deemed to have been repaid.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph that relate to the period during which the interest paid to debenture holders is exempt from tax, the Minister may, if he thinks fit, in the instrument mentioned in paragraph 1(2), make other provisions with respect to that period, and those provisions when so made apply to the approved mortgage company.

4A. (1) Where the income of the Home Mortgage Bank is exempt from corporation tax under paragraph 1(1) by reason of paragraph 1A(1), any interest payable by the Home Mortgage Bank on debenture borrowings by the Home Mortgage Bank for the purpose of financing the purchase of mortgage loans from approved mortgage companies is, subject to subparagraphs (2) and (3), exempt from income or corporation tax in the hands of the debenture holders of the Home Mortgage Bank, if the interest so paid is derived from income of the Home Mortgage Bank exempt under paragraph 1(1) by reason of paragraph 1A(1).

(2) The period during which the interest paid to debenture holders is exempt from tax under subparagraph (1) is a period commencing on the date when the principal sums are paid for the debentures and ending two years after the date on which the principal sums secured are deemed repaid under subparagraph (3).

(3) For the purposes of subparagraphs (1) and (2), any sum repaid to the Home Mortgage Bank by the mortgagors under mortgage loans sold to the Home Mortgage Bank by approved mortgage companies after the issue of the debentures referred to in subparagraph (2), shall, after deduction of any interest paid on those debentures, be debited against the debenture holders account until the sums so repaid to the Home Mortgage Bank equal the principal sum secured by the debentures and thereafter the debentures shall be deemed to have been repaid.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph that relate to the period during which the interest paid to debenture holders is exempt from tax, the Government may, in the agreement mentioned in paragraph 1A(1), make other provisions with respect to that period, and those provisions when so made apply to the Home Mortgage Bank.

5. For the purpose of claiming the exemption granted in accordance with section 42 of the Income Tax Act, an approved mortgage company and a company within the meaning of paragraph 3, may apply to the Minister for a certificate in the form prescribed under section 46 of the Income Tax Act. Ch. 75:01.

6. In this Schedule—

“Home Mortgage Bank” means the Home Mortgage Bank established by the Home Mortgage Bank Act; Ch. 79:08.

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for Housing.
